

Jamf Support Services Sub-processors

Jamf may engage vendors to provide services on our behalf. Any vendor who may process Customer Content, as defined in Jamf’s Software License and Services Agreement (SLASA), are considered sub-processors and are disclosed below. As set forth in Jamf’s Data Processing Agreement (DPA), Jamf has adequate data transfer mechanisms in place with each sub-processor.

Sub-processor	Location(s) of processing	Purpose of processing
Dropbox, Inc.	United States	Secure Data Sharing
Microsoft Corp	United States	Email communication
Salesforce.com, Inc.	Ireland*, United States	Customer Relationship Management
ServiceNow, Inc.	United States	Customer support case management
Zoom Video Communications, Inc.	United States	Online meetings

* Ireland is the location for some customers of Jamf Security Cloud.

New sub-processors will be communicated to all customers.
